Questions from the Audience

1. Are certain areas more prone to forest fires?

2. What are the top causes of forest fires?

3. Can the approximate fire size be predicted based on other features?

4. What states tend to have more fires?

5. How accurately can the size of a fire be predicted?

6. Are there other variables that should be taken into consideration, but were not?

7. How have wildfires changed over the years?

8. Is there a certain time of year that fires occur more frequently?

9. Can understanding forest fires better, help with preventative measures?

10. What types of modeling were explored?